FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, And all Connected with the Judicial Administration of North and West.

the Government.

THE STATUTE Of the State of ndiana, CONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references . judicial decisions. EDITED BY JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD. Volume 1, Published by BINGHAM & DOUGHTY, INDIAYAPOLIS. Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the followins ecommendation of the work:

STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD.—Some months ago, the above named gentiemen issued proposals for publishing, in two volumes octave of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and Louisville and Nashville Roads. the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession.

The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconrenience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to thistime the lawyer has constantly been under the neces-sity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in N E W A C HE I N the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the profession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs. Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and opious index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs. The volume under review contains another excellence Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, to that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all leg-islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod'-fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs, Ga-vin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three act of 1857. And they have followed the same mode of coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. A still more valuable feature are the copious and accurate notes contained in the volume in question. This volume includes the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Vir-ginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constis tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appropriate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate note-and references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval. In every respect the volume under review is highly red-itable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste o its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes. Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book, solely because he believes the editors and publishers deserve high commendation for their performance. He, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being solicited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the book, ever his own proper name. DAVID McDONALD.

Worthy of Merit. Among the many remedies offered to the public under he head of Patent Medicines, it is a relief to know that some of them are valuable preparations—will do what is claimed for them—and are worthy of use and a place in every family. Belonging to this class may be mentioned Dr Roback's Scandinavian Remedies—Blood Purifier and Blood Pills—which are most excellent preparations, and have the desired effect in all cases for which their use is intended. Like thousands of others, we bear personal witness to this, having used them in our family with the best effects. We are also acquainted with many who speak voluntarily in praise of these medicines. One of our leading business men says that by the use of only four bottles of Purifier he received more than one hundred dollars worth of benefit. His difficulty was Dyspepsia. We express our thanks for a liberal present of these remedies for use in our family.

Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short-space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining postion much of the remaining postion when the side and back much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaint-ances to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful phy-sicians in the country, but receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recom-

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully.

OAK GROVE, S. C., June 24, 1859 Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir-Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test. During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire sur-face of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a pro-fessional man myself; and, as I thought understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Restorative, which I have every reason to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hatr as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Eest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not

Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, as much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hatr Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair.
